TRAINING DAYS FOR BASIC LISTENING SKILLS

We are always keen to continually equip our volunteers to carry out their role in the most effective way and, with this in mind we have arranged a series of training days, which we really would encourage you to attend.

We have organised the training sessions for 'Basic Listening Skills'. We feel that it is important for all our volunteers to have these skills as, much of what we do involves at some stage, the need to listen to the people with whom we come into contact.

The training, will take place in the loft Tuesday 23rd June and Tuesday 8th September will run from 7.30pm until 9pm and will involve learning to develop skills in reflective listening.

To take part in the course please contact Julie-Anne on 0151 226 3406 or email julianne@changingclubmmor.org.uk
